Reinforcement of Government Position at Asnieres.

Parts, April 20. The Commune has issued a manifest saying: "Paris, once more laboring and suffering for the regeneration of France demands local autonomy and the encouragement of the producers. She doe not aim at dictatorship; she has decentral ized the unity of the country." The document pronounces a compromise with the Versailles Government impossible and will retire to Rheims. closes with an appeal to France to disarm the troops now threatening the capital. VERSAILLES, April 20.

President Thiers in a circular to the Prefects of the Departments, announcing the capture of Asnieres, declares the end of the criminal resistance to the Govern ment is approaching.

A Paris special says Le Bien Public and L' Opinion Nationale still appear, notwithstanding the order for their suppression, and sell freely. The ramparts are being rapidly strengthened. The cholera is anticipated, numerous deaths occurring from kindred diseases.

A Versailles dispatch says Fort Val erian, after a long silence, has resumed the bombardment of Porte Maillot. The insurgents are bombarding Sevres from the new naval battery erected at Point du Jour. The Government is unable to reply. The Gaulois says it must confess that the insurgent defense shows sytem intelligence and daring.

Another dispatch from Paris says that Another displace from Taris says that the taking of Assieres was accomplished by strategem, the troops of the line simulating friendship and fraternization, and thus passing the outposts of the line without difficulty. The buildings at Assieres were destroyed.

Communists are building barri cades in the Rue Rivoli and many other atrects. At half-past two o'clock Wednes-day there was an engagement along the whole line.

A dispatch dated 5:25 P. M., Wednesday says Valeiren and Courbervoie were shelling Paris frightfully. The Arc de Triomphe had fallen and Avenue des Ternes was visited by a shower of shells. Forty citigens were killed. General Dombrowski still claims a victory, but the Nationals are returning dis-pirited and disgusted. There has been an awlul slaughter. Dombrowski com-plains of the inefficiency of officers. The American mitrailleuses have been moved to the front. Dombrowski states that he is waiting the co-operation of the gunboat which will be ready in four days. Discussions in Parliament. LONDON, April 21.

In the House of Commons several gen-tleman gave notice of motions adverse to Mr. Lowe's financial plans. The subject of the declaration of the treaty of Paris of 1856, against the prevailing and estab-lishing principle that neutral flags cover enemy's goods, came up. Mr. Bentinck argued in favor of the withdrawal of England from the agreement advocated of the resumption of search. He believed the resumption of search. He believed the United States and other powers would disregard the declaration in case of war. Sir Roundall Palmer, Stephen Cave, and others, spoke to the same effect. The Attorney General replied, defending the Paris declaration. He said it was impossible to escape its obligation. Disraeli lamented that the subject had not been introduced earlier, so it might have been brought to the attention of the recent brought to the attention of the recent conference of powers in London. It was agreed that the declaration was injurious to England, but it must be respected until it is formally revoked.
